The Shepherd Collection

The Shepherd Collection

"The Shepherd Collection" is a limited edition four-piece collection knitted together with "Cannabis Hemp" and "Sheep Wool" for those who truly love to blend in the nature.

When it comes to nature, less is more and since, "The Shepherd Collection" specifically focusses on the aspect of bringing true nature to your doorsteps where the cannabis hemp yarn used in this is collected from the wild and wool is collected from the sheep living in their natural habitat (Himalayan Jungles).

This collection is a four-piece limited edition because "The Shepherd Collection" discards the factory manufacturing as we want you to wear what nature can give you without any form of industrial manufacturing, chemical processing, finishing and any other form of violence.
